WELCOME TO ASHBURN ALLEY

NOT YOUR TYPICAL BALLPARK

Family-Fun Features that make Citizens Bank Park World-Class

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN

Build a world-class ballpark that offers fans an intimate and exciting experience: that was the goal when designing Citizens Bank Park.

The exterior architecture – comprised primarily of multiple shades of red brick, precast concrete and granite complemented by green roofs with a copper patina finish – combines the essence of Philadelphia's rich tradition of sports architecture with an unmistakably 21st century style.

Black accent bricks patterned in the shape of baseball diamonds are inlaid across the top of the three primary facades. Additionally, along Pattison Avenue, the black bricks spell the word "Philadelphia" in 12' high letters. The ballpark architecture will be a welcome addition to this historic city.

At the four corners of the site, landscaped entrance plazas open the park to the street. Each of these entrance plazas has a distinct character and focus, echoing the City of Philadelphia's design plan with its four unique squares. Approaching the entrance plazas, the steel framed seating bowl and twin light towers flank the primary entrances – which lead to the open-air main concourse and an open view to the playing field.

With the Philadelphia city skyline as the backdrop, the ballpark features bowl-style seating with the playing field scooped out 23 feet below street level. The seating bowl layout is inspired by the classic plans of Baker Bowl and Connie Mack Stadium, former homes of the Phillies. Like Connie Mack Stadium, the upper and lower decks do not correspond exactly in plan. The cantilevered steel structure allows for more open seating areas.

The walk-around, open-air concourses offer a continuous, uninterrupted view of the field. Fans can now enjoy the game whether they are in a seat, a concourse, a restaurant, a suite or a club lounge.

ASHBURN ALLEY

A festive outfield entertainment, retail and concession area for all fans, named in honor of Phillies legend Richie Ashburn. It opens 2½ hours prior to weekday games and 3 hours before weekend games so fans can watch batting practice. This fun area spans the entire outfield concourse and includes:

All-Star Walk

Black granite medallions featuring Phillies All-Stars since the first All-Star Game in 1933 are on display throughout Ashburn Alley. Additions will take place annually as Phillies players receive All-Star honors.

Bullpens

Fans have the chance to view the bi-level bullpens and watch pitchers from both teams warm up. A special viewing platform located in Memory Lane includes instructional pitching plaques and a unique peek into the bullpens.

Citizens Bank Games of Baseball

A unique entertainment area that provides interactive games for guests: Run the Bases, Ballpark Pinball, and Pitch 'Em & Tip 'Em. Guests can redeem coupons at Citizens Bank kiosks for various prizes.

Memory Lane

Located on the back of the batter's eye walls is an illustrated history of Philadelphia baseball, including the Phillies, Philadelphia Athletics and Negro League teams in the city.

Rooftop Bleacher Seats

The Phillies are bringing back rooftop bleacher seats, a Shibe Park phenomenon of the 1920s when residents of 20th Street built bleacher seats on top of their roofs. The seats are located on top of the buildings along Ashburn Alley.

Wall of Fame

Bronze plaques are on display in Memory Lane of the players enshrined in the Phillies Wall of Fame that first started at Veterans Stadium in 1978.

CITY SKYLINE

Citizens Bank Park is designed with an open outfield, providing fans with a fantastic view of the Center City skyline.

CONCOURSES

A unique feature of the park is the 360-degree openness of the Main Concourse that gives fans a continuous, uninterrupted view of the field. It enables fans to stay in touch with the game if they leave their seats for a trip to the concession stands. The Terrace Level Concourse has a similar openness.

COOPERSTOWN GALLERY

Located on the Hall of Fame Club Level, the Cooperstown Gallery contains oil paintings and artifact cases of Hall of Fame players from the Phillies, Philadelphia Athletics and Native Sons who are enshrined in Cooperstown. A total of 32 legends are honored.

DIAMOND CLUB

The exclusive Diamond Club, featuring over 1,120 extra-wide, padded seats located behind home plate, offers unparalleled sightlines along with an amenities package that includes in-seat wait service. Members have access to the Clubhouse Lounge that features a pre-game buffet, upscale concessions, two full-service bars and views of the indoor batting cages used by the Phillies and their opponent.

FOOD, BEVERAGES

Bull's BBQ

Anchoring the eastern end of Ashburn Alley is Bull's BBQ, an outdoor picnic table area for fans to feast on barbecued pork, ribs and chicken. Greg "The Bull" Luzinski is the daily host.

Concessions

Permanent and portable stands offering tasty fare are available to fans on all the concourses. Many of the stands have Philadelphia incorporated into the name. Philadelphia-flavored food specialties will also be available.

High & Inside Pub

A unique indoor space on the Terrace Level offering brews and dramatic views. Open to the fans every game.

McFadden's Restaurant & Saloon

A sports-oriented restaurant that features many of McFadden's and Zanzibar Blue's signature dishes. Located adjacent to the Third Base Gate, McFadden's is open all year and available for catered functions.

Harry the K's

Named after Phillies Hall of Fame broadcaster Harry Kalas, the game's only bi-level restaurant built into a scoreboard is located in left field and provides fantastic views of the field and Ashburn Alley.

FINE ARTS

Original artwork by Hall of Fame artist Dick Perez is on display in Cooperstown Gallery located in the Hall of Fame Club . . . Original artwork by Philadelphia artist Dane Tilghman is displayed in the Diamond Club . . . Max Mason, a renowned artist, has his works displayed in Harry the K's . . . Unique tile mosaics by Jonathan Mandell are displayed on the Main Concourse . . . Zenos Frudakis has sculpted four 10-foot bronze statues of Phillies Hall of Famers Richie Ashburn, Robin Roberts, Steve Carlton and Mike Schmidt.

HALL OF FAME CLUB

Premium seating located primarily in the infield on the Press Level, the Hall of Fame Club unites spectacular sightlines with first-class amenities. The 2,500-seat area provides the luxury of a more comfortable seat along with access to private, climate-controlled lounges featuring two full-service bars, large screen TVs, and upscale food.

MAKE YOUR OWN PHANATIC

Guests, young and old, can pick out a miniature Phillie Phanatic, stuff it and dress it in one of the Phanatic's outfits. This exclusive Citizens Bank Park feature is run by Build-A-Bear Workshop and is located on the Main Concourse near the Third Base Gate.

LIBERTY BELL HOME RUN SPECTACULAR

Towering 100 feet above street level, the Liberty Bell rings after every Phillies home run. The bell and clapper sway from side to side independently, its neon edges light and pulsate and its ring can be heard throughout the park. The 35-foot by 50-foot Liberty Bell is located in right-center field.

MERCHANDISE

Team Stores: The expansive Majestic Clubhouse Store featuring official Phillies merchandise is located adjacent to the Third Base Gate and is open year-round. The Alley Store, located in Ashburn Alley, is open for fans during home games.

Phanatic Attic: The second level of the Majestic Clubhouse Store is dedicated to Phanatic retail merchandise and geared to children. It is also open year-round.

STARTING LINEUP

Who's in the starting lineup for the Phillies? Prior to every game, the Phillies reveal their starting lineup by displaying large Fleer baseball cards on the wall behind the scoreboard adjacent to the Left Field Gate.

SUITES

The Suites are located directly above the Field Level and afford spectacular views of the action. A total of 71 suites are accessible by a balcony that overlooks the Main Concourse. Inside the suites, fans are treated to state-of-the-art amenities including upscale catering, comfortable seating and furnishings that carry a distinct baseball flavor.

"THE ANGLE"

The uniqueness of Citizens Bank Park carries over to the playing field with "The Angle." Part of the outfield wall, located between the left-center field power alley and dead center field, angles into the playing field and has heights that taper from 19' to 12'8". Batted balls hitting the angle are sure to create havoc for the outfielders and produce some interesting extra-base hits.

VIDEO BOARD

The largest LED video display board in the National League (39'5" x 69'7") anchors the scoreboard system above Harry the K's in left field.

VIEWING AREA

Citizens Bank Park is designed with a special viewing platform on the first base side of the Terrace Level. The area, located near Section 310, offers a spectacular view of the playing field and Center City skyline.

IN MEMORY OF TWO PHILLIES ICONS

The scene was in Los Angeles after the Phillies lost to the Dodgers in the 1978 League Championship Series, falling short of the World Series for the third straight year.

Closer Tug McGraw approached General Manager Paul "The Pope" Owens and said: "I don't know what you are gonna do with this team, but don't trade me. I want to be here when we win it all."

Two years later, the two were hugging each other and crying when the Phillies were presented the World Series trophy in the clubhouse at Veterans Stadium.

It was the high point of the greatest era in Phillies baseball, 1976-83, when they reached the post-season six times. Owens was the architect and McGraw the closer.

When the Phillies closed Veterans Stadium on the final Sunday last September, both were able to be on the field even though they were battling illnesses. McGraw, who got the last out in the 1980 World Series win over Kansas City, was the last person on the mound during the emotional closing ceremonies. The Pope, along with his 1980 manager, Dallas Green, and current GM, Ed Wade, rode a golf cart around the warning track as the 2004 Phillies and Alumni walked the final curtain call in Vet history.

As fate would have it, Owens, 79, died on December 26 and Tug, 59, lost his battle to brain cancer on January 5.

THE POPE

Owens served in every level of player development during his 48-year Phillies career—minor league player and manager, scout, director of the farm system, major league general manager and major league manager.

Following the 1959 season, his last as a minor league player, Owens became a scout, covering Southern California, Arizona, New Mexico, Western Colorado and Southern Nevada. He was promoted to Director of the Farm System on May 22, 1965, overseeing the scouting and minor league player development phases. He was instrumental in the building of Carpenter Field, the Phillies' spring training complex in Clearwater, Fla., in 1967.

Owens was named Vice President, Director of Player Development (General Manager) on June 3, 1972, succeeding John Quinn.

He had two stints on the field as a major league manager, 1972 and 1983. After taking over on July 18, 1983, Owens led the team to the World Series. He wore the uniform one more year, managing the Phillies in 1984.

Owens became Assistant to the President in 1985 and Senior Advisor to the General Manager in 1998. As late as two years ago, he was in spring training with both the major league and minor league Phillies. He used to watch home games at Veterans Stadium in Wade's private box, but illness kept him from being at the Vet last season until September.

YA GOTTA BELIEVE!

McGraw coined the phrase "Ya gotta believe!" during the New York Mets' 1973 season and carried the slogan through his illness that was first detected after he was hospitalized during spring training in Clearwater last March 12. He was in his second year as a guest spring training pitching instructor with the Phillies when he was taken ill.

During his nine-year career with the Mets, McGraw was on two National League pennant winners, 1969 and 1973. The '69 team won the World Series. Owens brought him to the Phillies in a trade on December 3, 1974.

Without McGraw, the Phillies would have never won their first World Series in 1980. After coming off the disabled list on July 17 of that year because of tendinitis in his pitching shoulder, McGraw allowed just three earned runs the rest of the season in 52.1 innings. He compiled an unbelievable 0.52 ERA during that span.

He recorded 11 of his 20 saves after July 31 and was 5-0 with five saves during the stretch run in September and October.

McGraw was the winner when the Phillies clinched the NL East title on Mike Schmidt's 11th-inning home run in Montreal, 6-4, over the Expos on October 4, 1980. In dramatic fashion, he struck out the last Expos batter, Larry Parrish, and then leaped in the air as the Phillies headed for the post-season for the fourth time in five years.

McGraw relieved in nine of the Phillies' 11 post-season games that fall. He was on the mound for the last out in five of the Phillies' seven wins—Games 1 and 4 of the League Championship Series and Games 1, 6 and 7 of the World Series. The last out in each of those three World Series wins was a dramatic strikeout.

The greatest moment in Phillies history came at 11:29 p.m., October 21, when McGraw fanned Willie Wilson to end the Series. He jumped into the air and raised both arms, a scene that will live forever in Phillies history.

REMEMBERING BOTH

"The Pope and Tug were icons in Phillies history and an integral part of the Phillies family," said Phillies President David Montgomery. "Each, in his own way, really connected with the fans, which also made them special. To make sure their legacies live on, we will pay tribute to them in several ways."

Their uniform jerseys - Owens (#5) and McGraw (#45) - will be displayed in the Phillies clubhouse in both Bright House Networks Field and Citizens Bank Park this season. The team will also honor Pope and Tug on their uniforms throughout the 2004 regular season.

The Phillies will continue to salute their best minor league player and pitcher with the Paul Owens Award, an honor that began in 1986. At some point during the inaugural season at Citizens Bank Park, a permanent display will be installed in time for the annual September presentation of the Award. In addition, a "Ya gotta believe!" plaque with Tug's photo will be displayed in the Phillies bullpen at Citizens Bank Park.

Owens and McGraw are a part of the Memory Lane display in Ashburn Alley and both are included in the Phillies Wall of Fame, also located in the Alley.

EXECUTIVES

DAVID MONTGOMERY

General Partner, President and Chief Executive Officer

David Montgomery started working for the Phillies in February 1971, the year Veterans Stadium opened. He previously developed a passion for baseball while attending games at Connie Mack Stadium as a young fan. With the opening of Citizens Bank Park in Philadelphia and Bright House Networks Field in Clearwater, Fla., he will oversee a new era of Phillies baseball.

April 12, 2004, culminates years of planning and designing a new baseball-only facility, an idea which originated with Phillies Chairman Bill Giles. Phillies fans will be treated to a ballpark designed for them with outstanding sightlines and many entertaining amenities. The design of Citizens Bank Park is the result of input from the entire Phillies organization, focus groups involving fans and the opportunity to learn the pros and cons of all the other ballparks that opened in recent years.

Montgomery's front office career started with the sale of season and group tickets. He advanced to positions as Marketing Director and then Director of Sales before becoming Executive Vice President when the current ownership group purchased the team after the 1981 season.

He was elevated to Chief Operating Officer in 1992 and succeeded Bill Giles as General Partner, President and Chief Executive Officer on June 20, 1997. The groundwork for this eventual appointment took place in November 1994 when he was designated as a Co-General Partner, which included a segment of ownership.

Under Montgomery, the Phillies have focused on building a strong team on the field by making significant improvements in the scouting and player development area. Led by General Manager Ed Wade and Assistant GMs Ruben Amaro and Mike Arbuckle, the Phillies minor league system has produced a significant influx of major league players.

During his 33 years in the game, Montgomery has been active in a wide range of capacities for Major League Baseball. He is presently Vice Chair of the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Enterprises (formerly MLB Properties). He also serves on MLB's Schedule Committee and is a member of MLB's Labor Policy and Strategic Planning Committee.

Locally, Montgomery is involved at the University of Pennsylvania where he served as a Trustee. In July 2004, he will assume the Chair of the Policy Board of WXPN Radio - 88.5 FM at the University of Pennsylvania. He's also on the Board of Overseers of the Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts.

In addition to his Penn activities, Montgomery is also on the boards of Need in Deed, a non-profit service-learning organization working with children in Philadelphia public schools, and the Philadelphia Sports Congress. He is a past Board Chairman of both the Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education and the Woodlynde School, a private K-12 school in Strassford, PA.

Montgomery will again serve as co-chair of this year's Celebrity Pool Tournament hosted by Mike Lieberthal, Doug Glanville, and Randy Wolf. The annual event benefits Philadelphia Futures, a program that helps inner-city students prepare for and complete college. He is also honorary chair of the 2004 Spring Auction for the Bethesda Project, an organization serving Philadelphia's homeless.

Montgomery was born June 26, 1946, and grew up in the Roxborough section of Philadelphia. He is a graduate of William Penn Charter School (1964) and the University of Pennsylvania (1968) where he majored in history. He received his MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in the fall of 1970.

David and his wife, Lyn, make their home in the Wyndmoor section of Philadelphia. They have three children - Harry, Sam and Susa.

BILL GILES

Chairman

Baseball has been Bill Giles' life. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was President and General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and President of the National League (1951-69). Bill's mother died when he was nine so he spent long hours and a lot of days with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati. Bill's first job in baseball came when he was "around 14" years of age. It wasn't a glamorous position, as he did all kinds of odds and ends in the Cincinnati Reds' Public Relations Department.

Giles has held numerous positions with two National League teams, Houston and Philadelphia.

He's served on numerous committees in baseball and has been one of Philadelphia's most visible community activists. Currently Chairman of the Phillies, Bill was appointed Honorary National League President early in the 2001 season, the first father-son combination at that level in baseball history. Bill represents the NL at the All-Star Game and post-season play. The appointment by Commissioner Bud Selig is a testimony of Bill's stature in the game.

Following graduation at Denison University, Giles spent three years in the U.S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career took on a full-time status in 1959 when he was named GM of the Nashville Vols, a Cincinnati minor league team. From there, he moved to the expansion Houston Colt 45s. While in Houston, Giles served as Traveling Secretary, Publicity Director, Director of Public Relations and Promotions and Vice President. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as Vice President, Business Operations, following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to Executive Vice President.

When the Carpenters put the team up for sale in the spring of 1981, Giles organized a group that purchased the team on October 29, 1981. He remained President of the club until June 20, 1997, when he moved up to Chairman. In the summer of 2001, Giles was nominated to serve as Honorary President of the National League.

Giles is among Philadelphia's more civically involved citizens: Chairman Emeritus of the Board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; past President of the Boy Scouts of America; on the board of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, Greater Philadelphia First and the Police Athletic League; and a member of the Union League and Rotary Club.

Giles has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards: Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America; Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993), Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994); Anti-Defamation League Man of the Year (1994); American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996), Vision of Philadelphia Award (1996) by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc., and the American Heart Association's Man of the Year.

Giles, who was born in Rochester, NY, on September 7, 1934, resides in Villanova, PA, with his wife, Nancy. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Christopher. Michael is married to Annette. Joe and his wife, Paula, have four children, Caroline, Dana, Molly and Max. Chris and his wife, Amy, have two children, Eliza and Warren.

He graduated from Swarthmore High School in 1963 and the University of Delaware in 1967, receiving a BA degree in Accounting. He then served three years in the U.S. Navy as a Supply Officer from 1967 to 1970 and later attended the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, receiving a MBA in Finance in 1973.

Jerry serves as a Trustee to the Pension Committee of the Major League Baseball Players Benefit Plan, as a member of the University of Delaware Visiting Committee on Athletics and as a member of the Free Library of Philadelphia Foundation Board of Trustees.

BASEBALL PERSONNEL

RUBEN AMARO, JR.

Assistant General Manager

Ruben moved into the Phillies front office as Assistant General Manager immediately following the 1998 season, his last as an active player.

Born and raised in Philadelphia, Ruben was a batboy for the Phillies from 1980-83 when his father, Ruben Sr., a former shortstop with the club, was first base coach. He is a 1983 graduate of the William Penn Charter School, where he played both baseball and soccer. In 1987, he earned a BS degree in Human Biology from Stanford University and was a member of the 1987 NCAA Baseball Championship team.

Following that season, he was traded to his hometown Phillies, where he spent five of his final seven big league seasons (1992-93, 96-98). His only time away was 1994-95, when he played for Cleveland. Ruben played for both the 1993 NL Champion Phillies and the 1995 AL Champion Indians. 2003 TEAM NOTES

BOWA BALL

Manager Larry Bowa has 252 wins in his first three years as Phillies manager, which is the most by a Phillies manager in his first three seasons since 1915-17 when Pat Moran accumulated 278 wins and is tied for the second-best total in team history (Bill Shettsline also had 252 wins from 1899-1901). Since taking over, Bowa is 252-233 (.520).

TURNSTILE TRAFFIC

For the first time since 1995, the Phillies topped the 2 million mark in attendance at 2,259,903. It was the highest total by the club since 1994, when they attracted 2,290,971 fans. The Phillies tied a Veterans Stadium record with eight sellouts on the season, including their final four games, and set a record for highest attendance in a three-game span with 175,343 for the final weekend. Overall, they ranked 10th in the National League for attendance in 2003.

MILESTONE MEN

- Jose Mesa set the Phillies' all-time franchise record for saves when he earned his 105th on Sunday afternoon, June 29 at Camden Yards against the Orioles. Mesa finished the season with a club-record 111 saves as a Phillie (249 career).
- Dan Plesac finished the season with 1,064 career appearances, ranking fourth on Major League Baseball's all-time list.
- Bobby Abreu singled for his 1,000th career hit, July 4, off Carl Pavano.
- Jim Thome collected his 1,000th RBI on July 23 at Wrigley Field with a two-run homer off Matt Clement.

THE THOMENATOR

In just his first season with the club, Jim Thome's 47 homers set several single-season franchise records:

- Most home runs by a first baseman ... Former record: Deron Johnson, 34 in 1971.
- Most home runs by a left-handed hitter ... Former record: Chuck Klein, 43 in 1929.
- Most home runs at Veterans Stadium (28) ... Former record: Mike Schmidt, 25 in 1980.
- Most home runs in September (10) ... Former record: Klein (1929) and Schmidt (1980), 9.

FOR THE RECORD

The Phillies were one of only three National League teams to post a winning record against the Braves in 2003 (10-9). The other two were Florida (10-9) and San Francisco (4-2). For the Phils, it was the first time they won a season series over Atlanta since 1991 (7-5). Since then, the closest the Phillies had come was 1992 and 1993 when they went 6-6 against Atlanta in both seasons.

BURRELL COMPLETES A SIX PACK

With two home runs off Greg Maddux on April 9 vs Atlanta, Pat Burrell became only the sixth player to ever hit two off Maddux in the same game. Of those six players, three have been Phillies: Benito Santiago did it on May 3, 1996 and Scott Rolen did it on September 17, 2001. Burrell was the first player to do it since Rolen.

FOUR HORSEMEN

For just the third time in franchise history and first time in over a century, the Phillies had four pitchers who won at least 14 games each. Kevin Millwood (14-12), Randy Wolf (16-10), Vicente Padilla (14-12) and Brett Myers (14-9) became the first quartet to accomplish the feat since 1901 when Al Orth (20-12), Red Donahue (20-13), Bill Duggleby (20-12) and Doc White (14-13) did it. Their seven complete-game shutouts were the most since the team had eight in 1993.

GRAND OLE TIME

On September 9 in Atlanta, Tomas Perez and Jason Michaels each hit their first career grand slams. It was just the third time in franchise history that two Phillies hit grand slams in one game. The others: April 28, 1921 vs Boston (Ralph Miller and pitcher Lee Meadows) and August 18, 1997 vs San Francisco (Mike Lieberthal and Billy McMillon). Overall, the Phillies hit six grand slams this season, the most since hitting a club-record eight in 1993. In addition to Perez and Michaels, Bobby Abreu, Mike Lieberthal and rookies Marlon Byrd and Chase Utley all hit one (Utley's was his first career hit).

THE THOMENATOR, PART II

Jim Thome did something this season that had been done only five previous times in the history of baseball. He hit two game-tying home runs after the seventh inning on June 21 against the Red Sox. St. Louis' Tino Martinez did it three days later against the Reds. Here are the only other players to ever accomplish that feat:

Player	Team	Date	Innings
Art Shamsky	Reds	8/12/66	10th & 11th*
Ron Santo	Cubs	6/27/73	9th & 13th
Ron Fairly	Expos	8/20/73	8th & 10th
Ryne Sandberg	Cubs	6/23/84	9th & 10th
Roberto Alomar	Blue Jays	5/10/91	9th & 11th

*Shamsky also homered in the 8th to put his team ahead

HE LOVES NEW YORK

Pat Burrell homered four times at Shea Stadium this season to bring his career total to 12 in 35 games since debuting in 2000. In the 10 career games he's homered in (including two multi-homer games), the Phillies are 9-1. Burrell also has 32 RBI in the 35 games.

2003 TEAM NOTES

SUMMER CATCH

In the first three months of the season (March 31-June 30), the Phillies caught just eight of 73 potential base stealers (11%), the worst mark in the major leagues. Over the final three months, however, (July 1-September 28), the club threw out 16 of 63 (25%) potential base stealers (including five of their last 15), the 10th-best mark in the majors over that time (7th-best in NL).

THE MAGNIFICENT KEVIN

Kevin Millwood's no-hitter on April 27 against San Francisco was the 215th no-hitter in the major leagues and first since Boston's Derek Lowe did it on the same date a year prior, April 27, 2002 vs Tampa Bay. For the Phillies franchise, it was the ninth in club history and first since Tommy Greene threw one on May 23, 1991 in Montreal. However, it was only the second thrown by a Phillie at Veterans Stadium, joining Terry Mulholland's on August 15, 1990, also against San Francisco (Montreal's Pascual Perez was the only other player to throw one at the Vet, 9/24/88, but his was a rain-shortened game). Millwood was also only the third pitcher in major league history to throw a 1-0 no-hitter; the Cardinals' Jose Jimenez was the last, June 25, 1999 at Arizona. Finally, Millwood was the third straight "Kevin" to pitch a no-hitter against the Giants, joining Kevin Gross (1992) and Kevin Brown (1997).

AT HOME ON THE ROAD

Thanks to the Phillies, the Orioles set an all-time Camden Yards attendance record on June 28. The crowd of 49,549 was the largest ever at the ballpark, besting Game 3 of the 1997 ALDS against the Mariners (49,137). The Phillies also hold the second-largest regular season crowd in the history of Camden Yards. On July 7, 2001, the Orioles drew 49,072 fans to watch the Phillies defeat the O's.

LUCKY 13

On April 13, the Phillies made history when they scored a club-record 13 runs in the fourth inning at Cincinnati's Great American Ball Park, falling two runs short of the modern National League record. The previous team high for runs in an inning was 12, scored in the Baker Bowl against the Chicago Cubs on July 21, 1923 (6th inning of Game 1 of a doubleheader). The modern NL record is 15, set by the Brooklyn Dodgers against Cincinnati on May 21, 1952 in the first inning. During the record-setting inning, the Phillies collected six hits, including two by Jim Thome, and walked seven times (one intentional). Ricky Ledee put the icing on the cake with a three-run homer for the final runs of the inning. Eleven of the 13 runs scored with two outs. As it turned out, that was the only inning the Phillies scored, eventually winning the game, 13-1.

IT'S A MARATHON, NOT A SPRINT

On Friday night, June 27 at Camden Yards in Baltimore, the Phillies defeated the Orioles in 17 innings, despite having starting pitcher Brandon Duckworth leave with an injury after the first inning. The game lasted 5 hours, 41 minutes.

- It was the longest Phillies game in terms of innings and time since July 7, 1993 vs LA - 20 innings in 6 hours, 10 minutes.
- It was the most innings pitched by the Phillies bullpen in a game (16.0) as far back as records go (1930) in the 120-year history of the franchise. Records indicate the closest they ever came was 15.0 IP on August 21, 1980.
- The last time a major league bullpen pitched 16.0 innings in a game was April 11, 1992 when Cleveland's bullpen pitched 16.1 innings.
- It was the longest outing for Jose Mesa as a Phillie (3.0 IP) and longest for him since August 30, 2000 with the Mariners.
- It was the longest outing for Dan Plesac as a Phillie (2.0 IP) and longest for him since September 1, 2001 with the Blue Jays.
- Hector Mercado finished the game for his first major league save.
- Nick Punto got his first major league extra-base hit (double) and had his first multi-hit game.

SUMMER GLOVIN'

The Phillies finished the 2003 season ranked fifth in the National League with a .984 fielding percentage. It was the eighth time in the last nine years the club finished in the top five (1998-9th). The Phils committed 97 errors, which was the fifth-lowest total in the league. Nineteen of those errors were committed by the pitching staff, which was the most by any NL staff (only Cleveland's 21 were more in the majors). The last time Phillies pitchers made 19 errors was 1991; the last time they made more than 19 was 1990 (21). Individually, first baseman Jim Thome (.997) and shortstop Jimmy Rollins (.979) each finished with the 2nd-best fielding percentage at their respective positions. Second baseman Placido Polanco was leading the NL with a .996 fielding percentage when he was moved to third base in mid-August.

INTERLEAGUE PLAY

The Phillies went 8-7 against the American League this season. After beginning 0-3 against Seattle, the club went 8-4 for the remainder of the schedule, including a 3-game sweep of the Orioles in Baltimore. Interleague play was highlighted by the return of the A's to Philadelphia for the first time since 1954. The Phillies won the series against Oakland, 2-1, including a Sunday doubleheader sweep.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

While the Cincinnati Red Stockings of 1869 are recognized as the first all-salaried team, Philadelphia's earliest team, the Athletics, followed soon after in 1870. The next year, the National Association was formed and the Athletics were a part of that league.

When the Association disbanded in 1876, several of the stronger teams formed the National League, as it is still known today. The charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals, Louisville Grays and the Philadelphia Athletics.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5 before an estimated crowd of 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until a similar fate hit the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings six years later.

Worcester faced financial difficulties and was about to fold when Alfred Reach, a Philadelphia sporting goods founder, bought the Brown Stockings and moved them to Philadelphia.

Reach named the team the Phillies, a takeoff on the team's geographic roots, "Philly." Phillies is the longest-running name for any team in the National League.

LOSE FIRST GAME

History shows the Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 1,750 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 100 million spectators have attended games since the turn of the century when attendance figures were first recorded.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 15,000). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game on April 30, a 19-10 win over the New York Giants.

The Phillies had to share the Philadelphia baseball scene when the American League was formed in 1901. One of the eight teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack.

The Athletics enjoyed more success than the Phillies and thus were more popular. The A's won six pennants in their first 15 years while the Phillies could muster just one.

That first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games.

While the A's had a strong run in the 1930s (three pennants, including two straight World Championships in 1929-30), the Phillies floundered. Outfielder Chuck Klein led an awesome attack but an awful pitching staff kept the Phillies from winning.

Baker Bowl began to deteriorate physically when some wooden bleachers gave way in 1927 forcing the Phillies to play a few games at Shibe Park (home of the A's). Finally, after 51 years at their stadium, the Phillies moved permanently to Shibe Park, July 4, 1938, splitting a doubleheader with Boston, a 10-5 loss and a 10-2 win.

While the A's remained stable under the Shibe family, ownership of the Phillies seemed to change constantly. From 1903 to 1943, the club had ten different owners.

CARPENTER ERA BEGINS

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of duPont wealth in Wilmington (DE), bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

Although it still maintained the official Phillies title, the club was known as Blue Jays for the 1944 and 1945 seasons. The new name was used heavily during that time, but then usage began to drop off in the following years. The Blue Jays name never appeared in the newspapers after 1947.

When Carpenter took over as president, he began to pour money into building a minor league system.

The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team, nicknamed the Whiz Kids, won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, on the last day of the season. Robin Roberts won 20 games that season, the first of six straight 20-win seasons. Center fielder Richie Ashburn started a streak of hitting over .300 for seven straight years, including two batting titles. Unfortunately, a world title eluded the Phillies as they were swept by the New York Yankees in four straight games.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

The A's, meanwhile, began to slide. After finishing last in 1954, their 11th eighth-place finish in 23 seasons, the A's were sold and moved to Kansas City. Once again, Philadelphia was a one-team baseball town.

Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's owner/manager in 1953. But it's worth noting that as early as 1953, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened with the Phillies hosting the Montreal Expos on April 10, 1971.

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as President in 1972, and General Manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they signed free agent Pete Rose.

Under manager Dallas Green, the Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history at precisely 11:29 p.m. on Tuesday, October 21, 1980, when Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

CARPENTER FAMILY SELLS

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season.

Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, Executive Vice President under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname, Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to the World Series for the fourth time by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the NLCS. The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

From generation to generation, fans' heroes change. Players such as Alexander, Klein, Roberts, Ashburn, Carlton and Schmidt will always be remembered but there were new heroes on the scene from the 1993 team. That club went from a last-place finish the previous year to the division title, leading the NL East for all but one day of the season. Lenny Dykstra was second in the MVP race; Terry Mulholland, John Kruk, Darren Daulton and Dave Hollins were All-Stars but this was a total team effort. All 25 players emerged as heroes.

This team didn't have one nickname such as the Whiz Kids or Wheeze Kids. They had many names because they were a group of athletes who became Phillies through shrewd moves by General Manager Lee Thomas.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favored Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Their spring training neighbors, the Toronto Blue Jays, were the opponents. Jim Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the Fall Classic.

A very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer, which gave the Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

Ten years later, the Phillies family said goodbye to Veterans Stadium through a season-long series of "Field of Memories" events, which culminated with an emotional closing ceremony on September 28, 2003, featuring dozens of current and former Phils.

In 2004, the Phillies moved into their new home, Citizens Bank Park, a state-of-the-art, grass and dirt ballpark which will be the site of many memories to come.

Phillies baseball is more than wins and losses. It involves people.

People who were Hall of Famers during the early years of the franchise ... Harry Wright, Ed Delahanty and Sam Thompson.

People who were MVP winners ... Klein, Jim Konstanty and Schmidt.

People who won Cy Young Awards, starting with Carlton's four and followed by John Denny and Steve Bedrosian.

People who were Rookie of the Year winners ... Jack Sanford, Dick Allen and Scott Rolen.

People who reached fans, first on the airwaves, and later on television ... Gene Kelly, By Saam, Ashburn, Bill Campbell, Harry Kalas, Andy Musser and Chris Wheeler.

Oh yes. There's one more important figure in Phillies history ... Phillie Phanatic, the big green furry creature who made its debut as the team's mascot on April 25, 1978. As with the 121-year-old baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a tradition.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Phillies™
AT BAT IN OUR COMMUNITY

The Phillies organization takes great pride in giving back to the community. Off the field, the Phillies have been a team to count on for decades through their efforts of reaching out to those in need.

Phillies Charities, Inc. serves as the fundraising arm of the Phillies organization and donates to dozens of non-profit organizations each year. In 2003, Phillies Charities made a donation of $502,000 to the ALS Association of Philadelphia, which is the club's primary charity. Since adopting ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) in 1984, the Phillies and Phillies Charities have raised over $6.7 million for ALS research and patient services. Also, Phillies Charities raised an additional $175,000 in 2003, most of which was donated through its Discretionary Fund to local, non-profit organizations.

Among the groups benefiting from the Phillies and Phillies Charities are the American Heart Association, Children's Hospital, Children's Miracle Network, Boy Scouts of America, the Junior Baseball Federation, PAL, the United Negro College Fund, Boys & Girls Clubs, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Philadelphia Futures, Special Olympics and Philadelphia Reads.

The Phillies are proud of their rich history of player and staff community involvement over the years. Randy Wolf was named the 2003 winner of the Phillies Community Service Award for his outstanding efforts last season. Additionally, Bobby Abreu, Pat Burrell, Larry Bowa, Marlon Byrd, Mike Lieberthal, Jimmy Rollins and Jim Thome were among the Phillies who donated time and money to a variety of charities.

Not to be overlooked are the players' wives, who also volunteer their time and efforts visiting hospital patients and raising money at various events. In 2003, the wives raised tens of thousands of dollars for several worthy causes and they are releasing a cookbook for charity this year.

Phillies front office employees also give of their time, money and efforts in several ways ... contributing canned goods for the annual Boy Scouts Food Drive, donating used winter coats to the needy, helping to cook and serve Christmas dinner for the homeless, plus many other events.

Education and literacy are at the forefront of the Phillies' community efforts. "Phillies Fundamentals" is an after school program started by the club in January 2001 which runs year-round in several inner city recreation centers. The program, which targets at-risk children, uses baseball concepts to make learning fun for kids. Additionally, children from the program are brought to a Phillies game and get the opportunity to meet a player. Jim Thome serves as Chairman of the program.

The Phillies annually support many education-based programs, including "Breaking Barriers," the Philadelphia Free Library Reading Program, the Philadelphia School District reading program and the Multiple Sclerosis READaTHON. Also, the "Phillies Harmony Club", which was started in January 2003, provides recreational and educational activities for mentally disabled children and adults.

For the past 11 years, former Phillies pitcher Dickie Noles has been an invaluable member of the Phillies organization, speaking annually to thousands of school-aged children on the dangers of drugs and alcohol and the importance of education. Noles, a certified drug and alcohol counselor, visits dozens of schools each year.

The Phillies are also committed to developing and teaching youth in the Philadelphia area the game of baseball. Rookie and RBI Leagues are designed not only to encourage inner-city children (from ages 6-18) to play baseball, but also to teach them the value of teamwork and sportsmanship. Combined, the programs involve more than 7,000 boys and girls yearly, making it the largest RBI and Rookie League program in the country. In addition, the Phillies also initiated and host three local amateur baseball tournaments. The Carpenter Cup is a tournament designed to give exposure to the top tri-state area high school baseball players while the Liberty Bell Classic is an annual Division I college tournament. The Giles Cup, started in 2001, is another college tournament for Division II schools.

Randy Wolf was the 2003 winner of the third annual Phillies Community Service Award for his outstanding contributions to the community. The presentation was made by former Phillies center fielder Garry Maddox.

JACKIE ROBINSON 1B • 2B • 3B • OF

Commissioner Bud Selig announced that all teams would retire this number in 1997 during the 50th anniversary of Robinson becoming the first African American to play in Major League Baseball . . . Robinson made his debut that season with the Brooklyn Dodgers, who retired his number following his 1972 death . . . In 1987, the National League Rookie of the Year Award was renamed after Robinson . . . Pitching coach Galen Cisco was the last Phillie to wear the number. (The 1997 rule was grandfathered, meaning a player who had worn the number could retain it until that player retired. Mike Jackson, who wore #42, was signed as a free agent by the Phillies for the 2000 season but he did not pitch in a game that year.)

RICHIE ASHBURN SPECIAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Established in 1998 in honor of the memory of Richie Ashburn, who spent nearly 50 years with the Phillies, the award is given annually to a member of the Phillies organization who has demonstrated the same loyalty, dedication and passion for the game as the award's namesake.

1998 – Pete Cera: A long-time employee who was with the Phillies from 1938 through 1998. He was a minor league traveling secretary, clubhouse manager, trainer and closed his outstanding career as assistant clubhouse manager in the major leagues.

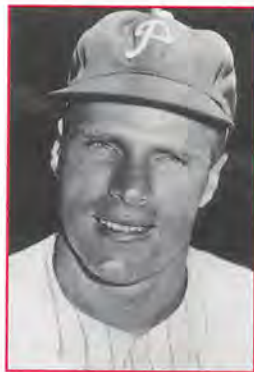

1999 – Paul Owens: With the Phillies from 1955 until his death in 2003. Served as minor league manager, scout, Farm Director, Player Development Director, General Manager (1980 World Champions), major league manager (1983 NL Champions), assistant to the President and Senior Advisor to the General Manager.

2000 – Ray Krise: First began working in the Phillies ticket office in 1951. Three years later he was named Assistant Ticket Manager. He became Ticket Manager in 1962, a position he held until semi-retirement in 1986.

2001 – Eddie Ferenz: Joined the Phillies in 1966 as the Public Address announcer at Connie Mack Stadium. In October 1969, he became the team's Traveling Secretary, a position he held for 30 years.

2002 – Maje McDonnell: Joined the Phillies in 1947 and was a member of the Whiz Kids coaching staff in 1950. He's also served as a coach, scout and goodwill ambassador and currently works in the team's Community Relations Department.

2003 – Larry Shenk: Began his career with the Phillies in October 1963 as Publicity Director. As Vice President of Public Relations, "The Baron" oversees the media relations, community relations and creative services staffs, and was an instrumental part of last season's Field of Memories events at Veterans Stadium.

BILL GILES AND LARRY ROJAS AWARDS

Two awards were established in 1999 to honor minor league players who share the same attributes as the awards' namesakes: Bill Giles and Larry Rojas.

Giles and Rojas share a love and respect for the game of baseball, an outstanding work ethic and pride in being a member of the Phillies.

Giles climbed the baseball ladder from the minors to the majors, working in numerous executive capacities with the Astros and Phillies until getting a group together to purchase the Phillies in 1981. He was President and General Partner until 1997 when he became Chairman.

Rojas was born in Cuba and played minor league baseball with the Phillies. He has also served as a minor league coach and manager, spring training coordinator, scout and liaison for the Hispanic players in the system.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster and National League President, has been presented annually since 1978. Each award recipient is presented with a certificate during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Long-time Phillies broadcaster By Saam received the award in 1990 and was joined in 2002 by his former broadcast partner, Harry Kalas.

J.G. TAYLOR SPINK AWARD

The Philadelphia media are also represented in the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Former Philadelphia Inquirer baseball writer Allen Lewis (1981), Ray Kelly of the Philadelphia Bulletin (1988), and Bus Saito from The Trentonian and Trenton Times (1992) won the J.G. Taylor Spink Award. The award, named after the founder of The Sporting News, has been voted upon annually by the Baseball Writers' Association of America since 1962 and honors a baseball writer (or writers) "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing".

PHILADELPHIA WALL OF FAME

Over the years, one of Veterans Stadium's most popular attractions was the Philadelphia Baseball Wall of Fame, located on the 200 level concourse behind home plate. The display was started in 1978 as a way to commemorate the city's rich baseball history and each year plaques were added to the wall to recognize former greats from both the Phillies and the Philadelphia Athletics.

With the opening of Citizens Bank Park, the tribute to the A's players has been moved to the Connie Mack statue, which is located on the west side of the ballpark. A Phillies player will continue to be added each year to the Wall of Fame display located in the Memory Lane area of Ashburn Alley.

Players must have five or more years of service to be eligible. Managers and coaches need four years.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD PRESENTED BY JOHN HANCOCK

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Greg Luzinski received the award in 1978 and Garry Maddox in 1986. Other past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

Bobby Abreu tied a Phillies record with 5 RBI in one inning, July 24, 2003, at Wrigley Field.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Phillies came into the National League in 1883, having moved from Worcester, Mass. where they were the Brown Stockings. They have been known as the Phillies ever since, the longest-running team name in pro sports. Although the club was known as the Blue Jays in 1944 and 1945, the name was never officially changed from the Phillies.

2003 MINOR LEAGUE NOTES

ALL GOOD THINGS MUST COME TO AN END

The Phillies' minor league affiliates snapped their six-year run of combined winning baseball with a 317-369 (.462) record. The last time the system combined for a sub-.500 record was 1996, when they went 345-355 (.493). However, single-A Clearwater's 72-61 record was their best since the 1999 season when the team went 77-59.

READING RANKINGS

Double-A Reading led the Eastern League with 117 home runs and 145 stolen bases, while also boasting the league leader in each category. Outfielder Jeff Inglin led the EL with 24 home runs and 103 RBI, becoming the first Reading player to lead the league in both categories since Rocky Colavito led the 1953 Reading Indians with 28 HR and 121 RBI. Shortstop Anderson Machado, a September call-up for the Phillies, stole 49 bases, tops in the circuit, and led all of minor league baseball with 108 walks. Defensively, the R-Phils led the EL and set club records with a .979 fielding percentage and a league-low 111 errors.

ATTENDANCE NOTES

It was another big year at the turnstiles for Phillies minor league franchises. Reading led the EL in total attendance (465,717) and average attendance (6,849), the second-highest total and average in club history. Reading also became the first EL franchise to surpass eight million in total attendance with a crowd of 8,123 on May 4 vs Altoona. For the third consecutive season, single-A Lakewood led the South Atlantic League in total attendance at 445,838. It was the third-highest total among single-A ballparks, behind only Dayton (590,382) and Kane County (516,133), both of the Midwest League. The BlueClaws' average attendance of 6,654 also led the league for the third straight year.

ALL-STAR TRIFECTA

Righthander Ryan Madson became the third straight Red Baron selected to start for the International League in the Triple-A All-Star Game. Madson, who started for the National League squad in the 2002 Double-A All-Star Game, struck out two and allowed an unearned run in 1.0 inning of work. Righthander Joe Roa was selected last season, but did not start due to his major league call-up, and righthander Brandon Duckworth made the start in 2000.

MVP

Ryan Howard became just the second player in Clearwater Phillies history to be named the Florida State League MVP after nearly winning the league's triple crown. Howard led the FSL with a .304 batting average and 23 home runs and finished second with 82 RBI. Ron Jones won the award in 1986 after batting .371 with seven home runs and 73 RBI. Howard's 23 homers also set a Clearwater record, passing Dan Held's 21 in 1995.

PITCHING PROWESS

For the fourth straight season, the triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre pitching staff finished in the top four among International League teams. The club's combined 3.79 ERA ranked fourth, snapping their three-year streak of leading the IL. They also led the league with 15 shutouts, issued the fewest number of walks (334) and tied for second with eight complete games (Toledo led the IL with 10). Clearwater finished third in the Florida State League with a combined 3.25 ERA. Like Scranton, they also issued the fewest number of walks in the league (319), finished second in complete games (6), tied for second in shutouts (13) and third in saves (44). Ezequiel Astacio set a Clearwater record and led the FSL with 15 wins. He and Elizardo Ramirez (13) combined for 28 wins, the most ever by a Clearwater duo, besting 1997's pairing of David Coggin (11) and Rob Burger (11).

MAN OF STEAL

Despite hitting a league-low .217, Lakewood led the South Atlantic League with 196 stolen bases. Outfielder Chris Roberson led the way, leading the SAL with 59 steals and finishing sixth in all of minor league ball. Roberson had the most steals by a Phillies minor leaguer in nearly a decade; outfielder Jeremy Kendall had 62 for single-A Spartanburg in 1994.

RULES OF INTEREST	333

RULES OF INTEREST

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m. it will be considered a night game. Two-night doubleheaders shall be considered two night games.

PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.

ROSTER LIMITS: 40 until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40 (maximum).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game. A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 1/2 or 5 innings). A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins. Rule 4.11 (d) ... A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

-The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

-The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEARS OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

RAIN RULES

A game is in the hands of the home team up until the game starts, unless the game is in the final series of the season between the two teams. Once a game has started, the Umpire-in-Chief assumes the right to determine whether the game shall be stopped because of bad weather or unfit playing conditions.

When a game is temporarily suspended because of rain, umpires must wait 1 hour and 15 minutes before calling the game. Should there be a second suspension, umpires shall wait at least 45 minutes before calling a game. For a third and any subsequent rain delays, umpires are to wait at least 30 minutes.

QUALIFYING MARKS

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances. However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at-bats, then that player shall be awarded the championship.

PITCHING CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

ROOKIE: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

SAVE: Credit a pitcher with a save when:

- (1) He is finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher; and
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
 - (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or
 - (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

No more than one save may be credited in each game.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAK: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide at-bats into hits.

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at-bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifice flies).

FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

WAIVERS

Major League waivers must be secured for all Major League trades from August 1st until the day after the regular season concludes. No waivers are required to trade a Major League player at any other time.

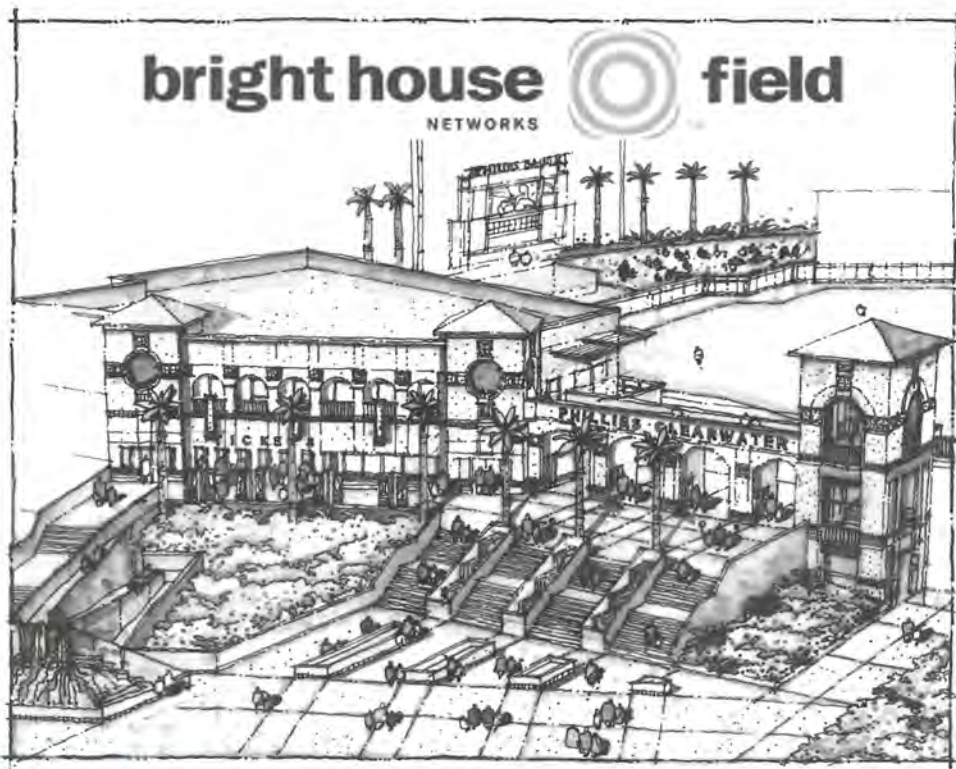

NEW SPRING HOME

After 49 years at Jack Russell Memorial Stadium, the Phillies have a new spring home, Bright House Networks Field, a $28 million facility located adjacent to Carpenter Field in Clearwater, Fla.

The Phillies have trained in Clearwater since 1947. Carpenter Field, built in 1967, is used by the Phillies' major league and minor league players in spring training, a team in the Gulf Coast Rookie League during the season and the Florida Instructional League in the fall.

Under new manager Mike Schmidt, the Clearwater Threshers, the Phillies' Class A affiliate in the Florida State League, will play their home games in Bright House Networks Field starting in April.

"The new ballpark along with Carpenter Field provide the Phillies with the finest spring training facilities in Florida. We're thankful to the city, county and state for their assistance in making this the best," stated club President David Montgomery. "With Bright House Networks Field here and Citizens Bank Park in Philadelphia, we have the double excitement of opening two new ballparks in two months, a first in baseball."

BALLPARK DESIGN

Bright House Networks Field is designed with a classic Floridian architectural style and has the following features:

- A 360-degree main concourse, open to the playing field
- 7,000 fixed seats with grass berm seating for an additional 1,500
- A tiki-hut pavilion in left field
- Group picnic areas, party suites and Club seats
- A kids play area and expansive team store
- A state-of-the-art video scoreboard
